PROFILE

Highly skilled professional transitioning from a 20-year career in video editing to a Data Analyst role. Known for translating raw media (data) into engaging content, handling diverse projects honed a strong analytical mindset, exceptional attention to detail, and sharp problem-solving abilities. Eager to leverage technical expertise and project management skills to deliver meaningful visualizations and actionable, data-driven insights.

DATA ANALYTICS PROJECTS

FBI Hate Crime Analysis (SQL, Tableau)

Analyzed hate-crime data from 1991–2023 to uncover correlations between offender biases, offense types, and incident rates in the context of national events.

TSA Claims Analysis (Excel, Tableau)

Examined trends in TSA claims from 2000–2015 to identify patterns influencing efficiency and financial outcomes.

Operating Room Efficiency Study (Google Sheets, SQL, Tableau)

Investigated fictional operating room scheduling data to extract inefficiencies and potential root causes.

120 Years of the Olympics (Python, SQL)

Explored whether host-country athletes benefit from home advantage, whether competing in multiple events affects success, and whether physical traits correlate with medal outcomes.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Video Editor (A Few Selected Highlights)

Show Editor, Rachael Ray (CBS), 3 Seasons (after 3 seasons as an Asst. Editor)

- Edited 200+ episodes of the Emmy-winning multi-cam studio show over 3 seasons, plus opens, teases, sizzles, and packages.
- Contributed to over 1,000 episodes during my tenure on the show.

Film Editor, 19th Floor Productions

- Editor for the indie feature films Moving in 2008 and Dean Darling, where every scene was shaped into the director's vision.

Editor, GT Racer (Discovery/Voom), 2 Seasons

- Edited the entire run of this unscripted classic car racing series, taking the raw footage from each racing weekend, finding the story, and making it come to life.

Additional work includes award-winning short films, numerous television projects, ad content, and more! See my full credits at dovyellin.com/credits or on IMDB.
